She was preceded in death by her husband; twelve siblings and their spouses, Raymond (Mary) Ostrenga, Joseph (Antonette) Ostrenga, Walter (Anna) Ostrenga, Peter Ostrenga, Frank Ostrenga, Felix (Lucille) Ostrenga, Bernice (Frank) Petasek, Rose (Frank) Jurczykowski, Violet (Walter) Saharsky, Anna (Peter) Piontek, Antonette (Casmier) Piontek, Gertrude (Bernard) VandenAvond; and 13 brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law.

Visitation at SS. Peter and Paul Church, 710 N. Baird St., Thursday from 9:00 a.m. until the time of the funeral. Mass of Christian burial 10:00 a.m. Thursday at the church with the Rev. Bill O'Brien officiating. Burial at SS. Cyril and Methodius Cemetery.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to the staff at Odd Fellow Home for the wonderful care provided to our Mom – you will all be in our hearts forever. Thanks also, for our dear sister Bev, for her faithful daily visits and warm affection for our mother, leaving by saying, “Mom, I love you all day and all night.”

“ Janet and Ken, Wayne and Mary, Bev, you have my deepest condolences at this time. Thank you for sharing your mother with me. I will forever cherish the memory of our time together, especially when Regina was teaching me Polish and encouraging me to dance to her polka music. Regina had a deep love for her family, past and present, and I enjoyed hearing the stories of her life. Your mother was so proud of all of you. She was fortunate to have such a loving family. Regina's memory will live on in my heart. God bless you all.
